BALL PLAYERS IN TEXAS.

While not training for the coming season such pastimes as shown in photo are part of the day's experience. Left to right: Ragun, Stallings, Nof, Evers, Hughes (on the Ranger) and Hank Goudy, cranking the young three-year-old Ford.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

Wisconsin has now thirty divisions.

Division 4 will meet next Monday evening.

Councilman Tom Dolan, of Division 1, is behind a movement to censor picture shows.

Seventy-five candidates were received into the order at the recent Cincinnati initiation.

The national conventions of the A. O. H. and Ladies' Auxiliary will be held in Boston in July.

The Hibernian Social Club, of Division 3, will probably give another moonlight excursion this season.

The press throughout the country gave special mention to our successful St. Patrick's day celebration here.

Councilman M. J. McDermott denies the rumor that he intends to move to New Albany or Jeffersonville.

At the initiation just held at Youngstown, Ohio, forty-one new members were admitted into the order.

Will McDonough, of Division 4, will lecture on the new workmen's compensation law at the meeting of April 24.

State Treasurer Joseph Casey has undertaken the organization of a new division at Newark, Ohio, that promises well.

National President McLaughlin has been doing effective work for the proposed monument to the "Nuns of the Battlefield."

Pursuant to action taken at the last State convention the Hibernians of Wisconsin have organized a new life insurance department.

Miss Minnie T. Thompson, of Worcester; Mrs. Agnes Read, of Fitchburg; and Miss Mary Whalen, of Gardner, are the Cook county, Mass., delegates to the Ladies' Auxiliary national convention.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Rome, N. Y., observed its fifteenth anniversary with a dinner at which the National Secretary, Mrs. Mary Connell, and the members of Division 3 and their wives were guests.

TAKES FATHER'S PLACE.

John S. Lovett, for a number of years an active and valiant member of the local fire department, was last week promoted from ladderman to Captain of the No. 4 Engine Company, succeeding his father, Capt. Michael J. Lovett, who was retired after over twenty years of service. Injuries received in a collision of the No. 4 Engine Company's hose wagon with an east-bound street car at Sixteenth and Market streets last December were responsible for Capt. Michael J. Lovett's retirement. He was badly hurt in the collision and one of the men, Edward J. Rider, a substitute fireman, was killed. Capt. John S. Lovett was appointed a member of the department in 1907. His excellent record caused the Board of Public Safety to appoint him to the position which his father filled with such credit.

FRANKLIN.

Gloom pervaded Franklin and the county last Saturday when it became known that James Larue, former Mayor and one of that section's most prominent men, had passed into eternal rest. James Larue was born in Franklin seventy-three years ago and was the son of John Larue, who was one of the pioneers of Nelson county. For many years he was a leading and successful dry goods merchant of Franklin. He served as Mayor of Franklin in 1875 and 1876. In 1882 he was chosen cashier of the McElwain-Megular Bank. In 1870 Mr. Larue was united in marriage with Miss Mary C. Finn, a daughter of John A. Finn, who was one of the best known lawyers Southern Kentucky has ever known. He is survived by a widow, who is a prominent church and club woman; three sons, Will, Larue, J. Hall Larue, editor and publisher of Franklin Favorite, and John Larue, an insurance man; two daughters, Misses Mamie and Nell Larue, and one sister, Mrs. E. D. Williams. His funeral took place Monday morning, attended by people from all the surrounding country. Rev. Father T. J. Hayes, of Bowling Green, conducting the solemn obsequies.

NATIVE OF LIMERICK.

Patrick J. Ryan, who for the past three years holds the title of champion hammer thrower of the world, with a record of 189 feet and six inches, is a native of Pallasgreen, Limerick, Ireland, being born within a short distance of the country which produced John Flanagan and Jim Mitchell, two Limerick men and both holders of American hammer-throwing championships; Matt McGrath, of Tipperary, also a former title holder, and Patrick J. McDonald, world's champion with the shot. The champion is at present a resident of New York, being one of the stars of the Irish-American Athletic Club.

COLONELS VS. CUBS.

The fans will get their first view of the Federal League baseball stars when Joe Tinker's Chicago Cubs hook up with our Colonels tomorrow afternoon, this being the first of a series of four games and it would not be surprising judging from the class shown by the Colonels thus far, to see them get at least an even break with the National Leaguers. If there is one feature attached to our great national pastime pleasing to the fans it is heavy hitting on the part of the home team, and with the acquisition of Whiteman and Kraft, coupled with Daniels, Platte and Corridon, we are sure to see many long drives in Eclipse Park this season. With fair weather tomorrow the crowd should rival that of opening day.

ALHAMBRA.

Saturday evening Al Sirat Caravan, of the Order of Alhambra, composed of members of the Knights of Columbus, held its annual meeting and election of officers, followed by an elaborate banquet at the Tyler Hotel. The officers elected were J. C. Kirchdorfer, Grand Commander; Thomas D. Cline, Vice Grand Commander; Carl J. Breckel, Grand Scribe; Fred A. Bauer, Grand Chamberlain; Ed L. Andriot, Scribe of Exchequer; Charles G. Knapke, Captain of the Guard; A. J. Chappell, Master of Oasis; Al C. Brand, Master of Wardrobe; John P. Kenaly, Sentinel of the Tower; Sid M. Raffo, Sentinel of the Desert; Camden R. McAttee, Historian. Al Sirat Caravan is the oldest in the South, and since its organization has instituted Darro Caravan at New Orleans and Talavera Caravan at Memphis. Another is being organized at St. Louis and its installation also will be conducted by the Louisville men. Al Sirat Caravan will most likely hold an initiation during the meeting of the Knights of Columbus State Council here in May. A class of about thirty will receive the degree, which will give the caravan approximately 150 members.

CHURCH A BEAUTY.

St. Louis Bertrand's church, Sixth and Oak, which the Very Rev. Father Crowley has had beautified with new frescoing and windows and myriads of electric lights, can now claim to be unequalled in the South, and must be seen to be appreciated. The new marble altar rail and steps, the latter the gift of Division 4, O. H., add much to its richness and beauty, and the interior appears much larger. All the contemplated improvements are not yet quite finished, but it is expected they will be completed for the Easter celebration, always one of the most imposing held in this section of the country. During his time here as Prior, not yet two years, Father Crowley has done phenomenal and surprising work for St. Louis Bertrand's church and congregation, who give him earnest support in his every undertaking.

EDIFYING RETREAT.

The four days' retreat conducted for the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society by the Very Rev. J. R. Meagher, O. P., at St. Louis Bertrand's church, will come to a successful close tomorrow night, when there will be an impressive procession. Each evening the number attending showed a marked increase, while enthusiasm grew apace. The services begun with the recitation of the Rosary, followed by a sermon by Father Meagher, who is the Provincial of the Dominican order of the Eastern province and unsurpassed as a pulpit orator. Tomorrow morning at 7:30 o'clock those who have made the retreat will receive holy communion in a body. In the evening there will be complete singing by a choral choir of young men, an innovation here, the services closing with the Papal blessing and the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

CATHOLIC FEDERATION.

The Catholic Federation of Louisville will meet Thursday night in the Knights of Columbus Hall, when the officers look for a large attendance and a number of new delegates. Much business of importance will be brought forward and President Ganz and Secretary Dolan have sent notices requesting all representatives to be present. The boy scout movement and moving picture censorship question will be discussed as well as other topics of vital interest.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

John Timlin has been co-opted on Castlebar Urban Council in room of his late father.

At the Armagh Assizes, Judge Pim congratulated the grand jury on the peaceful state of the county. Father Murphy, Castlebar, has been transferred to Aughagower, being replaced by Father Gibbons, of Killeena.

A resolution was adopted at the Dublin Corporation meeting protesting against the increased taxation of Ireland.

Rev. Father Casey, Trim, has been appointed to Beaufort, and Father Murphy, Beaufort, has been appointed to Trim.

The death has occurred at her residence, Galway, of Mrs. Burke, mother of Rev. T. Burke, Secretary to the Most Rev. Dr. O'Dea.

Miss M. Hackett, in religion Sister M. Kevin, daughter of the late James Hackett, Monaghan, has been received into the Mercy order at Ardee Convent.

The sudden death of John Collins, Tralee merchant, is much regretted. As he was dressing to attend mass he collapsed and expired in a few minutes.

The Sligo County Council adopted the Roscommon resolution calling for the repeal of the insurance act, which has proved a detriment to the people of Ireland.

When John Crotty was returning from Ballymacarbery to Castlereagh the animal he was riding threw him and broke his neck. His death was almost instantaneous.

At a recruiting meeting held in Carrick-on-Shannon Capt. Kelly, who represented the Lord Lieutenant, said that recruiting had proved a failure in County Leitrim.

The death has occurred at Inislogoe of Miss Alice Kavanagh, at the great age of 101 years. She had enjoyed good health up to a short time before her death.

New schools at Abbeyfeale have just been completed. This is the third set of schools erected within the past three years by Canon Lee, at a total cost of about $20,000.

The death is announced in Thurles of Patrick Fanning, aged eighty-six. He was one of the few living eye-witnesses of the arrest of William O'Brien after the Ballinagary affair of 1847.

The body of Patrick Fennelly, aged forty, of Abbeyfeale, who had been missing since December 27, was found in the River Nore. The coroner's jury found a verdict of accidental drowning.

The death in his eighty-fourth year of Ed O'Connor, a prominent merchant of Fermoy, is deeply regretted in North Wexford. He was a brother of Very Rev. Canon O'Connor, Ennisceorthy.

The Longford Assizes were opened in the Crown Court, Longford, by Justice Dodd, who was presented with a sword by Denis Kerrigan, Sub-sheriff. There was no criminal business to transact.

The following police stations in Meath have been abolished: Carlanstown, Tieroghan and Moyglare. There are still thirty-one police stations in a county where it is admitted that less than a dozen would be sufficient.

COVINGTON.

John Powers, fifty-nine years old, died Friday night at his home, 2000 Pearl street, Covington, leaving many friends who mourn his death. He was an old-time and highly respected member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and for thirty years had been with the C. and O. railroad. His son Thomas, who is a student at the Jesuit College at St. Louis, was at his father's bedside when the end came. The funeral took place Monday morning from St. Mary's Cathedral, and was one of the largest seen there for some time.

VALUABLE DONATIONS.

Several valuable donations have recently been made to the Catholic University Library, notably an Irish manuscript containing the famous "Colloquy of Ossian and St. Patrick," one of the gems of the ancient Gaelic poetry. This rare manuscript was donated by Rev. Dr. John J. O'Dorman, of Ottawa, now chaplain in the British army and holding the rank of Major. The precious volume was given to him in 1907 by Michael Behen, an octogenarian farmer of Tarmon, near Kilsrush, County Clare, whose favorite book it was. The reverend donor believed that all such manuscripts should be placed in public libraries where they can be consulted with ease and preserved with security.
